

GENESIS : Chapter 11-20

Abram obeyed God's call and received promises of God without any hesitation. Obedience to God calls for separation from the world (what man considers precious). God's promises to Abram included material prosperity, fertility and victory over nations and death. Abraham was selfless when it came to possession of land. He patiently waited for God to grant him an offspring. Abraham didn't see how God was going to fulfill these promises. In fact, he didn't see their fulfillment in many cases. The greatest fulfillment which did not come until 2,000 years after his life when Christ was born in Bethlehem. The blessing is salvation from sin. The blessing is you will not perish in your sins. God declared Abraham as righteous among the human beings and Abraham remained faithful to God's promises. God is personal and He makes His presence real to us in unusual ways from time to time throughout our Christian life. It's something that we experience of the Lord Himself. At the same time God is not going to tolerate blatant sin indefinitely. Compromise with the world means a wasted life with God. Abraham repeated his sin of (telling lie to Pharaoh) stating Sarah as his sister to Abimelech in Gerar! Trust God with yourself, but do not sin in order to wiggle out from your fear. Our God is righteous, impartial, loving and forgiving!! Those who faithfully believe in Christ shall never be forsaken. He restores those who call on Him, confess and repent!
