

Scripture Exam 2020 : Genesis 21-30

God was faithful to His promises (15:4) in giving Isaac to Sarah and Abraham and tested Abraham's faith thru the willingness to sacrifice his beloved son. Sarah dies at 120 and was buried in the cave of Machpelah. The death of Sarah was a time for Abraham to grieve and at the same time to trust the Lord and express faith in Him. God guided and lead Abraham to find a good spouse for Isaac. The first recorded prayer for specific guidance is found in 24:12-15. Isaac demonstrated faith and humility but also fear and deception. God blesses those who submit to Him in faith. God fulfilled His promise to Abraham that he would be the father of many nations. God in His grace enabled Abraham to see the both of his grandsons Jacob and Esau. Jacob represented the nation of Israel and Esau represented the nation of Edom. Rebekah aligned with Jacob and Isaac aligned with Esau. Our choices reflect our desire to align with God's will or our own way. In spite of Jacob's deception and lies God fulfils His promises in blessing him abundantly. Jacob married two wives in Haran (Leah and Rachel) and faced his father in law's deceitfulness. But God fulfilled His promises and flourished Jacob with children, flocks and wealth. God blesses His children in spite of their sinful nature!
