

John Chapter 17-21

God works through prayer to accomplish His purposes. Jesus prayed and established that eternal life is a present possession and not a future inheritance. Jesus obeyed His Father's Will to suffer for his people. God holds us responsible for our choices (faith or unbelief) and Jesus' sacrifice of crucifixion as Passover lamb is to save sinners like us. Jesus' triumphant finished work on the cross allows believers to clothe themselves with Christ's righteousness and gives hope of salvation. The Cross of Christ proves God's power to accomplish His plan for His people. Believers participate in Jesus' burial by choosing to bury their old way of life. The faith which rests on the evidence of the resurrection endures. Jesus desires a living, dynamic relationship with believers. Jesus' purpose of appearance after resurrection is for revelation of truth with every believer. Jesus equips believers thru' His Holy spirit to testify His resurrection power. Only Jesus can provide spiritual and physical blessings in abundance.
